Morgan says "lets get lost."

"Getting in my car is like going to ~~my~~ a studio" (she doesn't have a studio) she likes the motion. "It's nice to drive when the moon is out and Rabbit is sleeping." (Rabbit is her 3 year old son)

X = toys on the floor

move to another little attic room spot as soon as he can climb he can ladder

Rabbit's room (still under construction)

(although this won't end up his room, he will)

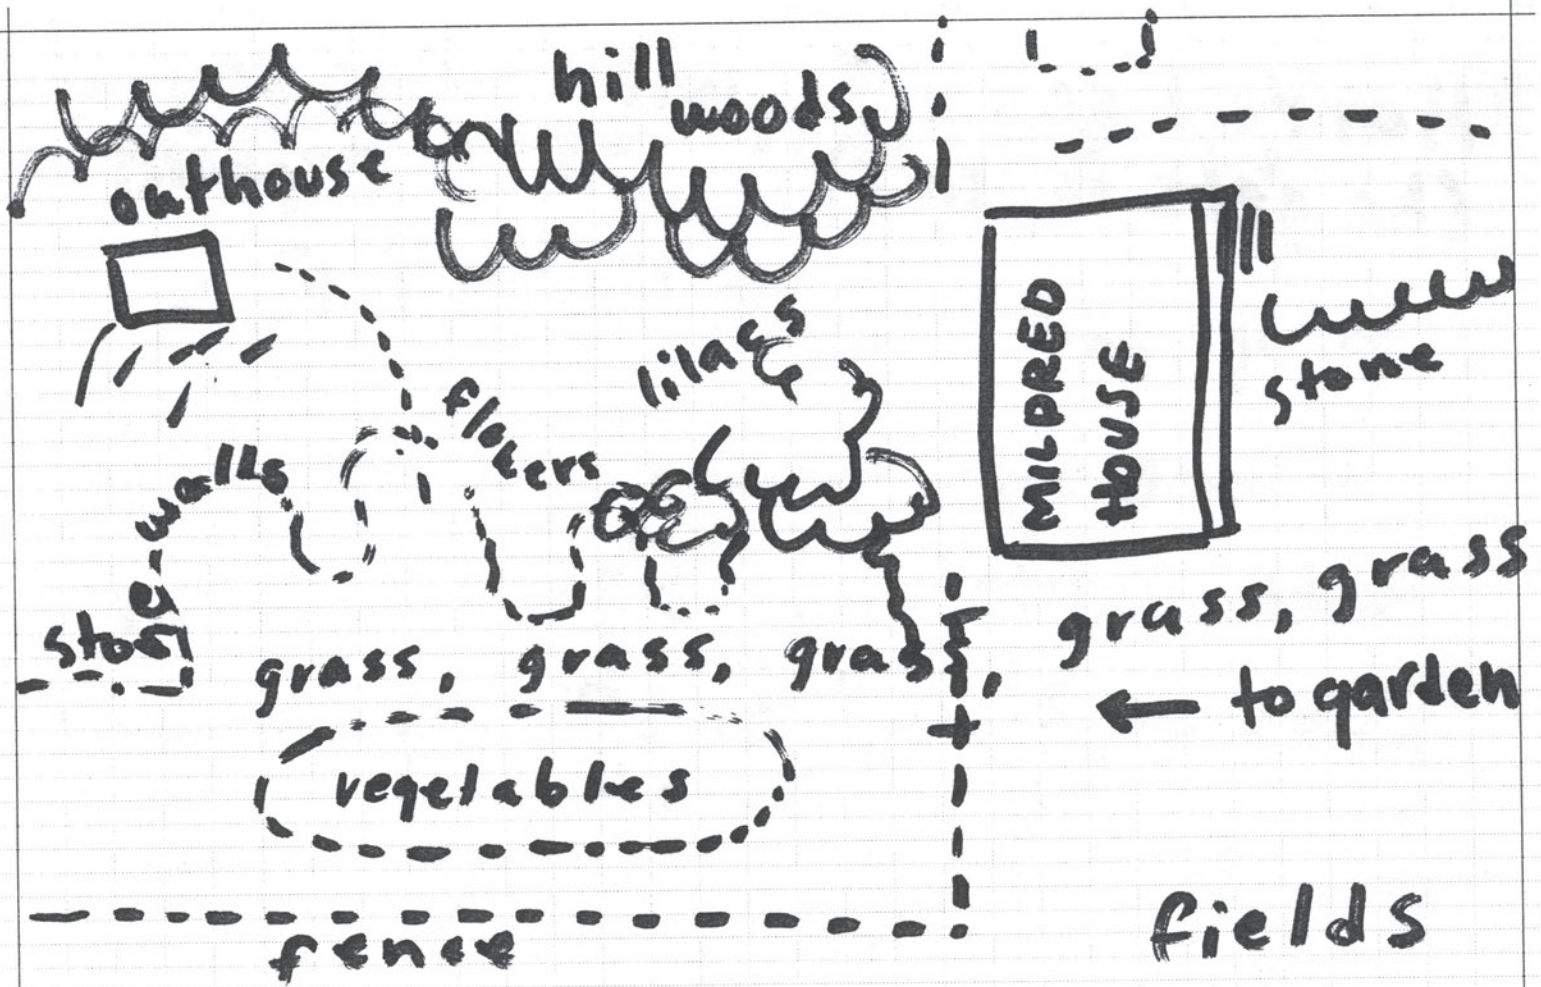

Harrell says "...with some say..."
(he gets to say).

map of Harrell F.

(Harrell would look good in skirts.)
guys should wear skirts anyway.
it is easy to pee out of them. they are loose in the crotch, and they can look very masculine. guys hips are perfect for skirts!

(hey harrell! when are you coming to give us a gardening workshop?)

J. Morgan Puett was born and raised in Hahira, GA. and still thinks of herself as a southerner though she lives in the remote countryside of Pennsylvania.
